His Eye is On the Sparrow

This hymn was written in 1906, which makes it a new hymn in the year 1911, when the story of Promise for Tomorrow takes place. It reminds us of God's tender care for us, making it a perfect song to include in a story about promises.

Why should I feel discouraged?

Why should the shadows come?

*Why should my heart be lonely,
and long for Heaven and home?*

*When Jesus is my portion,
my constant Friend is He.*

*His eye is on the sparrow,
and I know He watches me.*

*His eye is on the sparrow,
and I know He watches me.*

I sing because I'm happy.

I sing because I'm free.

*His eye is on the sparrow,
and I know He watches me.*

Let's Learn a Little Dutch...

Dutch words are sprinkled throughout the story in Promise for Tomorrow. Here is a list of the words with their English translation.

guilder - The basic monetary unit of the Netherlands equal to 100 cents. It looks like a gold penny.

Dominee - clergyman

opa - grandfather

moeder - mother

schuur - barn
